

Name: _____

Date: _____

Possessives

- An apostrophe (') is used to show that someone owns something.
- When there is one owner, use 's'.
The prince's golden baseball is kept in a fancy case.
- When there is more than one owner, usually use s'.
The five royal dogs' golden bones were kept in a bowl.

Read the sentences below. Circle the words that are missing apostrophes to show ownership. Then rewrite the word with the apostrophe.

1. The kings gold was in the treasury. _____
2. The queens jewels were in a box. _____
3. The babys bottle was warm. _____
4. The two kids balls were broken. _____
5. The doctors medicine was helpful. _____
6. The five babies toys were on the floor. _____
7. The three moms heads were hurting. _____
8. The teachers chalk is white. _____

Write eight sentences showing ownership of the words below.

kid – book	horse—tail	dog---bone	three trees—leaves
school—door	four birds —wings	two houses—roofs	Alex—shoes

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.